

Shri Ajey Ranade appointed as new Deputy Chairman, Kolkata Dock System, Kolkata Port Trust

Shri Ajey Ranade, an IPS officer of 1995 batch of West Bengal Cadre has taken over charge as Deputy Chairman, Kolkata Port Trust on and from 21st May, 2010.

Shri Ajey Ranade was Dy. Inspector General of Police (Operations), Criminal Investigation Department, West Bengal before joining Kolkata Port Trust Headquarters as Deputy Chairman, Kolkata Port Trust.

As a member of Indian Police Service Officer, Shri Ajey Ranade has served in the Govt. of West Bengal in various capacities. He was Superintendent of Police, South 24-Parganas District, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Central Division, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Port Division, Deputy Commissioner of Police, 4th Bn., Kolkata Police, Additional Superintendent of Police, Durgapur, Barrackpore, Burdwan, Coochbehar and SDPO, Basirhat. Shri Ranade was Lecturer, Department of Mechanical Engineering, B.D. College of Engineering, Wardha, Maharashtra, Lecturer, Department of Automobile Engineering, Ankush Polytechnic, Swangi, Wardha, Maharashtra.

As a Deputy Commissioner, Port Division, Kolkata Police, Shri Ranade acquainted himself with various operations, working environment and the challenges faced by the Kolkata Port Trust. He has knowledge about the port users and various other governmental agencies like KMC, Railways, Police, State Electricity Board, CESC etc. who are the partners in development.

Shri Ranade has done Post Graduation in Mechanical Engineering and this distinctive background has a definite advantage while working in industrial/commercial environments. He has also worked as Unit In-charge/Head of different units which is useful in perspective planning, human resources and financial management. Having required to tackle and face many conflicting situations has helped him maintain calm in challenging situation of crisis management. This has also honed his skills in team building, management and leadership.

In this significant hour, Shri Ranade's appointment as Deputy Chairman, Kolkata Port Trust with his multi-dimensional experience is an important milestone in the development of Kolkata Port Trust.